MISSIONS AND MOTHERHOOD

Worthy of Rest- As women we often have many different roles in our lives. We're always trying to juggle ALL. THE. THINGS. We continually pour ourselves out to others, but in doing so we're left feeling worn out, depleted, and burned out. We know we need rest, but we're not always sure how to make time for it, or what rest even looks like for us. Together, we'll dive into the importance of rest, what scripture says about it, and how to practically make time for it.

Bible Journaling- A hands on guide to Bible Journaling for yourself and as a legacy to leave for your children. Join us as learn how journaling through scripture and adding a little color to your Bible can help you grow in your walk with Christ.

The Mission Field of Mothering- How do we know if we're doing this mom thing right? No two children are the same and God's call on each will be different. Amy Boone, former missionary to South Africa and Mozambique and Executive Director of WMU-NC, will talk about our struggles as moms and pointing our kids toward Christ.

Godly Wisdom and Scripture Meditation- "

"Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."- Phillipians 4:8."

Let's take a few moments together to breathe, decompress and "think on" the things that you know to be lovely, good and true of yourself and your Savior through art, scripture, prayer and meditation.
